2.1 Explain the working culture of the film industry

What is it like in the film industry? (Consider hours, travel, freelance, working on set and budget. What are the pressures? What are the positives and negatives?)	The film industry can take a long time to film short scenes, which delays production and may cost more money. There is a pressure to get everything right, as to entertain the audience and not take them out of focus. It is a very stressful career due to the pressures.
What qualities do you need to work in the film industry? (E.g. Showing initiative, taking responsibility, good time management, knowing your specialism, having good communication skills) Give reasons for your answers.	You have to arrive on time, as to not delay production, You have to have good communication skills, so you can convey what your department needs. You have to show initiative so you can improve upon what has been done in your field. When you know your specialism, you can work in that department with your strengths.
