Oscar thinks - sleep

Film Review

5.1 Review and critique a short film

Film Title, Director, Country, Year	Hello Friend Graham Linehan England 2003
Story outline (1 or 2 sentence summary)	A man buys a new computer software that is shown in an advertisement, and it starts to take over their life.
What is the film trying to say/explore?	Do not rely completely on computers to function as it is getting rid of basic human brain functions.
Describe the genre (if fiction film), or style (if documentary).	Comedy Horror
What is the narrative structure?	Starts as an advertisement, is chronological. Contains long time jumps.
How has the director used sound?	Computer start up and voice over are the only sounds

Describe the main camera techniques:	Wide shots and close ups, with no movement in the camera.
Describe the editing style:	Slow pacing to create an eery vibe.
Describe the setting, locations used:	House, average middle class, slightly small. Hospital, clark, only surgery
Who is the film aimed at? Would you recommend it?	Fans of Graham Linehan's work, and fans of sci-fi comedy horror. Yes, 7/10